

Bhaarath Medical College & Hospital

Department of Community Medicine

World Tuberculosis Day 2021 report

Date: 27/3/2021

On the occasion of World Tuberculosis Day, which is observed on 24th March every year; a poster competition was held by Department of Community Medicine, BMCH for first year MBBS students on 20th March so as to create awareness among them. All the students participated in this competition. The best three posters were awarded prize.

